

do not relax the rules regarding media ownership. there is already too much consolidation whcih has done nothing to increase the choice or the quality of information available to the public.

thank you.